D. Definitions:

“Attributable” interest: Certain property and business interests not directly held by a person may be “attributed” to him or her and must be reported on the financial disclosure statement. The circumstances under which attribution occurs are as follows:

- (1) If you owned a 30% or greater equity interest in any business entity during the reporting period and that business entity holds a property or business interest which, if you owned directly, you would be required to report on Schedule A, B, or C, the interest is attributable to you and you must report it on the appropriate Schedule. This limited attribution does not reduce or affect in any way the requirement for disclosure on Schedule A of real property held by a partnership even if the filer holds less than a 30% interest in the partnership.

- (2) If your spouse or child holds a property or business interest which you would have to report on Schedule A, B, or C, if you owned it directly, and if you exercised direct or indirect legal control over that interest at any time during the reporting period, the interest is attributable to you and must be reported on the appropriate Schedule. “Indirect control” means you paid for the acquisition of the interest, in whole or in part, exercise decision-making concerning the interest, and/or have a legal right to exercise control, whether or not such right is exercised.
- (3) If at any time during the reporting period you (a) held a reversionary interest in a trust or estate or (b) were the beneficiary of a trust or estate or (c) were the settler of a revocable trust, then any interest held by the trust or estate which you would have to report on Schedule A, B, or C, if you owned it directly, it is attributable to you and must be reported on the appropriate Schedule. For purposes of this attribution provision, you are a beneficiary of a trust if you are a current income beneficiary, either receiving income or currently entitled to receive income, or if you have a current ownership or other interest in the corpus of the trust. Beneficiaries of an estate include immediate beneficiaries of an estate even if it is not settled. A trust, within the meaning of this section, does not include a common trust fund or a trust which forms part of a pension or profit-sharing plan that has more than 25 participants.

“Business entity”:

- (1) means a corporation, general or limited partnership, sole proprietorship, joint venture, unincorporated association or firm, institution, trust, foundation, or other organization, whether or not operated for profit.
- (2) does NOT include a federal, state or local governmental entity.

“Commission” means the Town of Chevy Chase Ethics Commission.

“Compensation” means any money or thing of value, regardless of form, received or to be received by any individual from an employer for service rendered.

“Earned income” means wages, salaries, tips, and other taxable employee pay, including net earnings from self-employment, exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) during the reporting period. It does not include dividends.

“Elected official” means any individual who holds an elective office of the Town.

“Employee”:

- (1) means an individual who is employed by the Town.
- (2) does NOT include a local elected official.

“Gift”:

- (1) means the transfer of anything of economic value, regardless of the form, without adequate and lawful consideration.
- (2) does NOT include a political campaign contribution regulated under Election Law Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, or any other provision of State or local law regulating the conduct of elections or the receipt of political campaign contributions.

“Immediate family” means a spouse and dependent children.

“Interest”:

- (1) means a legal or equitable economic interest, whether or not subject to an encumbrance or a condition, that is owned or held, in whole or in part, jointly or severally, directly or indirectly.
- (2) includes any “interest” held at any time during the reporting period.
- (3) does NOT include:
  - (i) an interest held in the capacity of a personal agent, custodian, fiduciary, personal representative, or trustee, unless the holder has an equitable interest in the subject matter;
  - (ii) an interest in a time or demand deposit in a financial institution or government entity, including, for example, a certificate of deposit (CD) or a money market fund having assets of at least $10,000,000;
  - (iii) an interest in an insurance policy, endowment policy, or annuity contract under which an insurer promises to pay a fixed amount of money either in a lump sum or periodically for life or a specified period;
  - (iv) a common trust fund or a trust which forms part of a pension or profit sharing plan which has more than twenty-five (25) participants and which has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be a qualified trust under the Internal Revenue Code;

E. Instructions for Completing Schedules:

SCHEDULE A. Real Property

Real property held by the filer or by a partnership, limited liability partnership, or limited liability company in which the filer has an interest must be disclosed, if it is held at any time during the reporting period. You must report real property whether it is located in or outside of Maryland. Partnership property must be disclosed, without regard to the extent of the filer's interest in the partnership. You must also report any interest you have in leasehold property, for example, property in which you are tenant, including business offices and personal residences. You must report your personal residence if it is owned directly by you, attributable to you or rented by you.

Note also that all appropriate information (e.g., date, seller, etc.) must be reported for land you own whether or not you have constructed improvements on it.

Schedule A deals with real property interests only; do not report here your interests in business entities. If real property held by an entity is attributable to you, or is a partnership, limited liability partnership, or limited liability company property, list the real property on this Schedule. Report your interest in the entity on Schedule B, C, or H (whichever is appropriate) if it falls within the reporting requirements of those Schedules.

Please answer the Questions 1 through 11c as appropriate. The Town Ethics Ordinance requires for each property to be disclosed that you give the location, the type of property, the nature and extent of your interest, the identity of other persons holding an interest in the property, encumbrances, date and manner of acquisition, the identity of the person from whom you acquired the property, and the nature and amount of consideration. Additionally if you transferred the property during the calendar year, the name of the person to whom you transferred the property, the portion of interest transferred and the amount of consideration received is required to be disclosed.

Please note that if your filing is inspected by a member of the public, the Town is required to redact your home address and designated second home address. Designated second home means: If you own one second home, your second home; or if you own more than one second home, any one second home you identify as your designated second home. Please designate your home address and second home address on the lines provided.

SCHEDULE B. Interests in Corporations, Partnerships and Other Business Entities

Report all interests in any corporation, partnership, limited liability partnership or limited liability company held by you during the reporting period, whether or not the entity does business with the Town. Examples of frequently disclosed items on this schedule are corporate stocks, corporate bonds, and partnerships. Filers are not required to disclose holdings in an Internal Revenue Service qualified trust or college savings plan. This would include the State of Maryland § 401(a), § 401(k) and § 457 (deferred compensation) plans. This would also include Maryland College Savings Plans, such as 529 investment accounts. Other possible qualified retirement accounts include 403(b) plans. The filer must determine whether the plan in which they participate meets the requirements for exemption from disclosure. (See definition of “interest” in paragraph D of Instructions and Definitions.)

Please answer the questions on Schedule B-1 as appropriate. The Ethics Law requires for each interest to be disclosed that you give the name and address of the entity, the nature and extent of your interest, the amount of the interest in actual number of shares, range of shares (0-100, 101-250, 251-500, over 500) or estimated percentage ownership interest in the entity (less than 1%, 1-5%, 6-10% or over 10%), other interests held in the entity, and any encumbrances or conditions.

Additionally, for each interest that was acquired during the calendar year, indicate on a Schedule B-2 the date and manner of acquisition, the identity of the person from whom you acquired the interest, if known (if acquired in an open market transaction where the seller is unknown, state “unknown, open market trade”), and the number (or range) of shares or estimated percentage ownership interest acquired and the consideration. If the acquisition solely consists of an addition to an existing, public traded corporate interest acquired by dividend or dividend reinvestment and it is less than $500, you need not provide any additional information.

Finally, for any interest sold or transferred during the calendar year, indicate on a Schedule B-2 the name of the person to whom you transferred the interest, if known (if an open market transaction where the buyer is unknown, state “unknown, open market trade”) and the number (or range) of shares or estimated percentage ownership interest transferred, and the consideration.

Additionally, if the interest was acquired during the calendar year, the date and manner of acquisition, the identity of the person from whom you acquired the interest, if known, (if acquired in an open market transaction where the seller is unknown, state “unknown, open market trade”) and
